

Getting information from the broadest spectrum possible is essential for evaluating the world around us. I oppose any vote which could further consolidation the ownership of the media. Please, retain the current ownership rules on June 2, 2003.